

© Copyright 2019 Natural Beach Living All rights reserved.

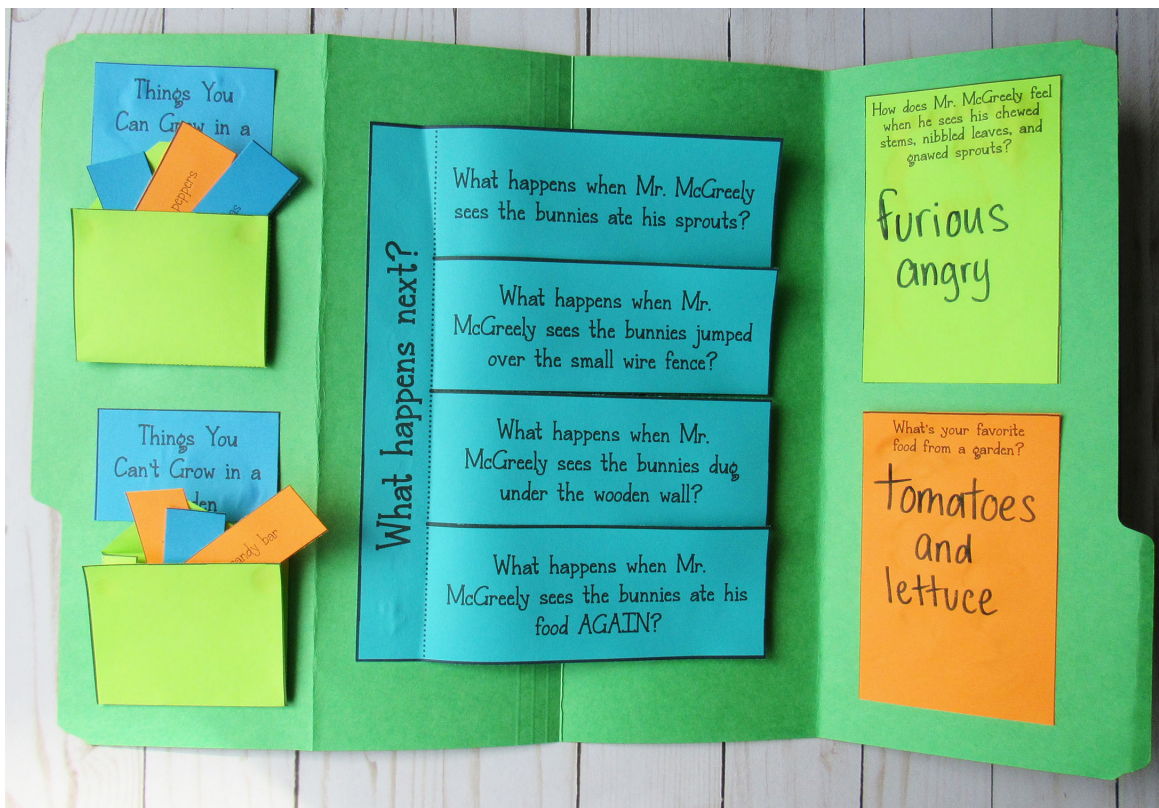

All rights reserved. This file is for personal and classroom use only. You are not allowed to resell this packet or claim it as your own. You may not alter this file.

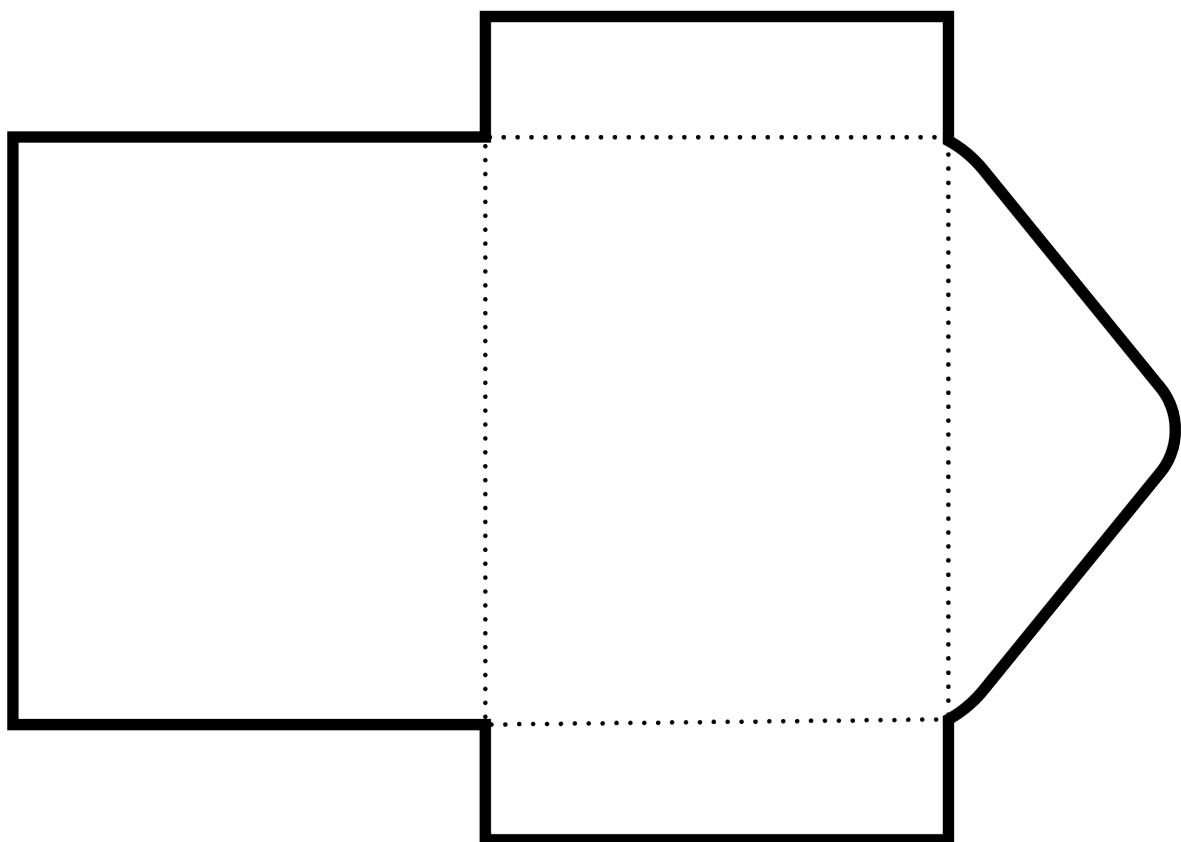

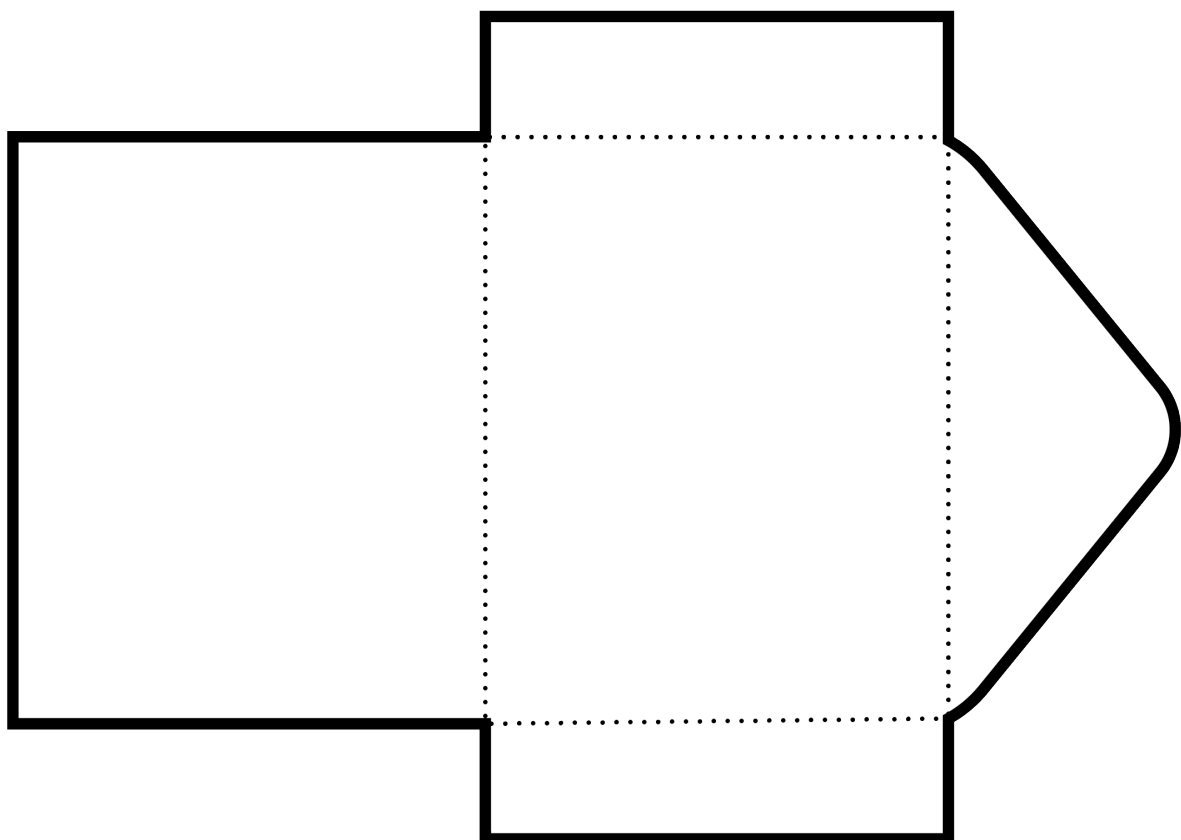

You may photocopy it only for personal, non-commercial uses, such as your immediate family or classroom.

Some graphics by: CandyClass.com

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Print on Astrobrights paper for instant color or color the pages. Cut along all solid lines.
2. Fold your file folder as shown. Cut out the cover, color, and cut it in half. Paste one to both outer flaps of the file folder.
3. Follow the directions on each page. Use photos below for a reference.

Cut out each of these boxes. Stick the box that says “Things You Can’t Grow in a Garden” on the top left of your lapbook. Underneath, fold and glue an envelope. Repeat the steps with the “Things You Can Grow in a Garden.” Cut out the card with words and stick them in the correct envelope, by what you can grow in a garden and what you can’t.

Things You Can Grow in a Garden

Things You Can't Grow in a Garden

lettuce

bell peppers

garlic

phone

candy bar

tomatoes

bread

onions

spaghetti

blueberries

blankets

peas

carrots

green beans

books

Cut along all solid lines. Fold along the dotted line. Glue the white spine that says “What happens next?” to your lapbook. Cut out the strips on the next piece of paper. Glue each one under the correct flap.

What happens next?

What happens when Mr. McGreely sees the bunnies ate his sprouts?

What happens when Mr. McGreely sees the bunnies jumped over the small wire fence?

What happens when Mr. McGreely sees the bunnies dug under the wooden wall?

What happens when Mr. McGreely sees the bunnies ate his food AGAIN?

He built a small wire fence.

He built a tall wooden wall.

He built a deep wet trench.

He built a huge, enormous thing.

MUNCHA MUNCHA
MUNCHA

-----'S LAPBOOK

How does Mr. McGreely feel when he sees his chewed stems, nibbled leaves, and gnawed sprouts?

What's your favorite food from a garden?